

User's Manual

VAPSSKY Conference Call

Introduction

Vapssky Conference Call is an application for GSM Blackberry devices that provides smart way of making conference calls using your Blackberry mobile phone. With this application, you can make conference calls to up to five users without having to navigate through complicated menus. Vapssky Conference Call application does the smart work for you. Set a Conference Group and press the call button... your conference call is ready.

Installation

Installation of Vapssky Conference Call can be performed Over the Air (OTA) by navigating to www.vapssky.com from your phone's web browser. Vapssky Conference Call installation package is provided in Blackberry standard JAD/COD format. Once you click on the download URL of Vapssky Conference Call from www.vapssky.com, you will be prompted to download Vapssky Conference Call and to configure permissions. Vapssky Conference Call requires permission to use keystroke injection for its proper functionality and you must set the permissions for the same. Vapssky Conference Call also requires permission to access phone log and http connection for activation purposes Hence you must set permission for this too for proper functionality.

For keystroke injection settings, navigate to

Options > Advanced Options > Applications > Vapssky Conference Call > Edit Permission > interaction and select “Allow” and click “save” menu.

For Phone log settings, navigate to

Options > Advanced Options > Applications > Vapssky Conference Call > Edit Permission > connection and select “allow” and click “save” menu for proper functionality

Once the installation is completed, you can run the application from the phone’s main menu.

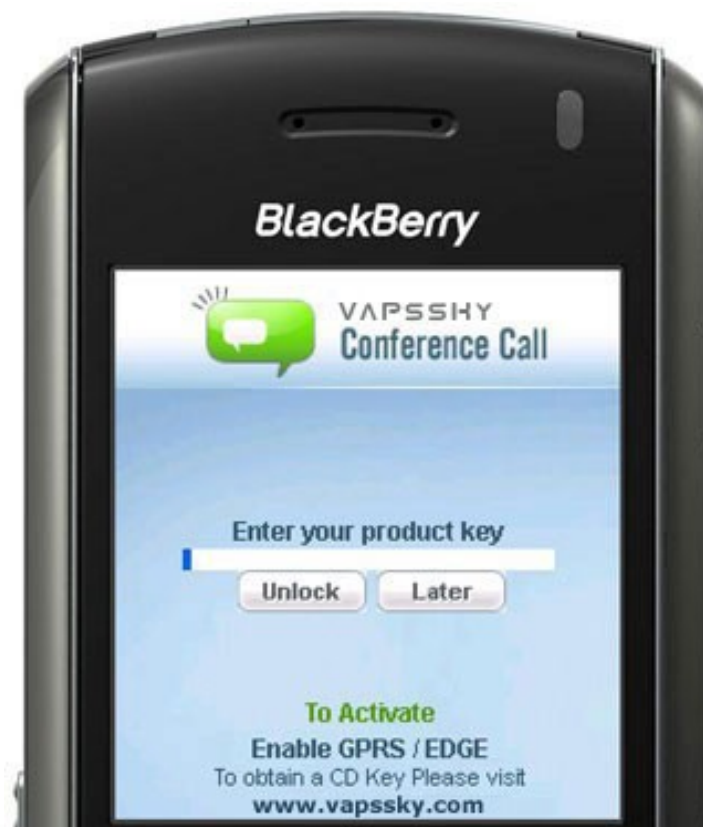

Product Key

Vapssky Conference Call works for 3 days as trial version after which you need to purchase the product for continuing the usage on your device. A Product Key will be provided upon purchase, which shall be entered into the application to make it the fully functional registered version. While entering the Product Key into the application, make sure that Internet is accessible to Vapssky Conference Call.

In case of APN settings error, navigate to

Options > Advanced Options > TCP and make sure all settings are correct.

To obtain the correct APN settings contact your provider or visit www.vapssky.com/apn.aspx

Group Settings

To create GROUP settings in Vapssky Conference Call you need to access menu CREATE GROUP in main screen of Vapssky Conference Call. You are asked to create Group name and make use of ADD CONTACTS, ADD NUMBERS menu for adding phone numbers to the particular Group. You can remove listed numbers in the group list through use of menu “Remove”. Phone number that appears First in group list considered as top priority number and last number in group list set to be least priority number respectively. Top priority numbers will be dialed after making calls to the low priority numbers. Priority setting can be done through use of Move Up, Move Down menu in Group Setting Screen .Group list should contain at least two participant for attempting a conference call.

Modify Group

Menu item MODIFY GROUP allows modifying selected group in Vapssky Conference Call. The targeted Group is subjected to change priority setting of selected group members or to add or remove the members in the group respectively. The targeted group name can also be changed.

Call Group

Vapssky Conference Call makes call to the selected group after clicking CALL GROUP menu item. The Selected Group can also be called through pressing CALL BUTTON. Once the call sequence is initiated, application dials each number in the order

Call Log

This allows display to Vapssky Conference Call's log screen. This screen contains the details about particular group name, and the date of conference made and also contains call duration and the typed notes provided at the time of conference details during pop screen display.

Uninstall

If you want to remove or reinstall the Vapssky Conference Call application from your phone, navigate to Options > Advanced > Applications > Vapssky Conference Call Menu and select the delete option.

